Are there community groups that you would like to see the LASC reach out to? Please identify the group(s) and a contact name if you have one.

The LASC has five standing committees, and every board member must serve on at least one committee:

Building and Grounds: Plans and assists with projects and planning relating to center building and grounds, including development of a plan for use of the exterior grounds as an educational urban greenspace.

Finance: Reviews financials, plans and assists with financing projects, assists with annual audit and tax return, maximizes return on investment, engages in stewardship of center funds and endowment through fiscally responsible practices.

Fundraising: Plans and assists center in meeting annual fundraising goals, identifying corporate and individual donors, and growing the endowment.

Governance: Reviews and recommends policies and procedures and amendments to governance documents, coordinates recruitment of new members to the board of directors.

Marketing: Plans and assists center in communicating with, engaging, and expanding center stakeholders (neighbors, business, community supporters, volunteers) and in increasing the community's awareness of the center, working closely with the LASC Marketing Director.

Please rank your preference for committees and let us know whether you wish to serve on more than one committee (while we will attempt to adhere to preferences in assignments, we cannot ensure you will be assigned to your preferred committee):

Living Arts & Science Center Board Member Responsibilities

As a board member of the Living Arts and Science Center (the Center) it is your responsibility to:

- Attend monthly board meetings, which are held the second Tuesday of each month (unless otherwise indicated).
- Serve on one standing committee.
- Become a Member of the Center. Membership levels range from $35 for an Individual membership and $75 for a Family membership on up to a Patron membership of $1,000.
- Make an annual contribution to the Center. It is important that we can say we have 100% Board participation during our annual campaign.
- Make an annual contribution to LexArts fundraising campaign. LexArts is the largest funder of the Center and it is important that we can say we have 100% Board participation to their annual fundraising campaign.
- Contribute to the success of the Center's primary fundraiser, the H'Artful of Fun, through the purchase or sale of tickets, solicitation of sponsors and auction items, and participation on a working committee.
- Serve as a community resource. Provide links and connections to professional and personal resources that can support the Center furthering its mission in the community.
- Advocate on behalf of the Center and its work in the community. Take advantage of and create opportunities to promote the work of the Center and encourage participation and support from individuals, businesses, organizations, etc.
- Be informed and ask questions of board members and staff. The best board member is one who is knowledgeable about the organization and its role in the community.
- Most importantly – Be Involved. This is a strong and well-respected organization for many reasons. The Center's Board of Directors is one of those reasons.
