BLACK LIVES MATTER: THE CALL FOR POSITIVE CHANGE!

JANUARY 15TH - MARCH 26TH, 2021
Black Lives Matter: The Call for Positive Change!

Held in conjunction with the exhibition Ayé Aton: Sun Ra and Beyond and during Black History month, the LASC is featuring works centered on the theme Black Lives Matter: The Call for Positive Change as submitted by area artists through a regional call.
Black Lives Matter: The Call for Positive Change!

The rise of the Black Lives Matter movement has brought to the forefront the issue of plight among African-Americans and the injustices inflicted on our Black neighborhoods. During this period of strife and political unrest, great change can occur. Through the bridging of communities and self-expression, understanding can emerge. The LASC will exhibit artwork that reflects this movement and its positive call for change during this important chapter in our nation’s history. This is a juried exhibition of 2d framed art that will be presented on the walls of the LASC’s Glo Gallery as well as on-line this spring.
